Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 10, the term "preferably " renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the term are part of the claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 5 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller (U.S. Patent 4,708,516).

Miller discloses a ground covering including a multi-layered structure with a substructure (16), a layer of sand (18) and a superstructure (14) arranged as claimed (Figure 1). Because the substructure is aggregate in the claimed size range, it is within the scope of the term "ballast" and is within the claimed size range. Because the superstructure includes binder, it is naturally bonded to the substructure.

Regarding claim 5, note that even a completely impervious pavement (i.e., zero voids) is within the claimed range.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 3-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miller (U.S. Patent 4,708,516).

Miller discloses a ground covering including a multi-layered structure with a substructure (16), a layer of sand (18) and a superstructure (14) arranged as claimed (Figure 1). Regarding the particle sizes and shapes recited in the claims, these sizes are all known to one skilled in the art. Further, information regarding characteristics imparted to ground coverings by specific particle sizes is readily available to one skilled in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the particle sizes as claimed in order to obtain a ground covering having characteristics best suited to a particular application.

Regarding the aggregate material, these are well known aggregates to use in order to obtain a strong, durable covering. For this reason, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the claimed materials.

The binding materials are well known. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the binding materials as claimed in order to obtain a durable covering.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the structure thickness in order to suit specific design loads.

Given the structure of Miller, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used the method in order to obtain the finished structure.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 15 August 2008 have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
